

Timeline

- 2017 Foundation is inherited by the Farbman Family.
- 2018 Farbman Family begins to dream up their vision and embark on a learning tour. They consult with key movement leaders to help envision the new foundation from the ground up.
- 2020 The heightened political moment of COVID and the Black Lives Matter uprisings caused the team to pivot plans and begin granting to meet the needs of the moment. The Farbmans' along with the consultant team began funding movement organizations and progressive granting intermediaries who were building power and supporting political interventions.
- 2021 Kolibri Foundation officially launches and the Board changes byways to require a family minority. Movement Directors join the Board and the foundation begins to hire staff.
- 2022 Kolibri Foundation grants over $3 million to 26 BIPOC organizations as part of their 2022 Inaugural Grant Cycle — the Reimagining Safety Fund.
- 2024 Kolibri Foundation announces $6.3 million in grants to 21 organizations as part of their 2024 Reimagining Power Fund.
- 2027 Kolibri will close and all assets will be invested into movement partners.

